FBI Lists CIA Documents Found in Md. Home

What follows is a partial list of some of the sensitive materials found by the FBI in various rooms at the Bethesda home of Edwin G. Moore II. The inventory listing was often vague and abbreviated with no further explanations provided.

On a porch, agents found items which they described as "Geographic Intelligence Report No. 493," "Economic Intelligence Report," "Outline of Peripheral Economic Requirements on USSR and Satellites," and "4 mimeographed pages labeled SECRET."

In a hall closet, agents reported finding "Supplementary Reading List, classified Secret"; in a bedroom were "197-page document classified Secret."

Listed as being found among other documents in a bedroom were "197-page doucment classified secret"; "Secret document titled 'Procurement' "; "CIA training document classified secret"; "CIA telephone directory, secret"; "Support bulletin classified secret"; "Planned weekly schedule—Executive Office of the President (official use only)"; "10 control logs classified secret."

In another bedroom, the list included "7 pages of documents classified confidential concerning personnel matters"; "1 brown manila folder containing 11 pages of confidential documents and 82 pages of documents classified secret"; "65 pages of documents of official nature dealing with CIA matters"; "98 pages of rought draft material not bearing classification but concerning national intelligence information."

Another room, identified only as B3 in the inventory, included "123-page booklet with addition attached entitled 'Studies in Intelligence' and Secret/NO FORN"; "A typewritten original of a note offering to provide penetration into the CIA for 10 million dollars"; "CIA memorandum dated 27/November, 1974, classified Secret"; "An 8½x 11" sheet of paper with the title 'Introducion to Intelligence' and classified 'Secret.' Portions cut off bottom edge."

Taken from the same room were "2-page stapled, HQ Instruction Sheet 686 classified 'Secret' "; "Alphabetical list of employees classified 'Secret' "; "Cover page to 1973, January, CIA directory"; "Operations Support Course Dispatch Exercise, classified 'Secret.' "

Listed, but not identified with any particular room were, among other materials "One Polaroid 210 Camera"; "Several 3 x 5 negatives found with camera"; "Three rubber gloves"; "One stencil of letters and numerals one-inch size"; "One stencil of letters and numerals one-half-inch size"; "One roll of unprocessed film"; "List of names, some of which come under heading CIA"; "Three copies of street maps indicating 4800 Fort Sumner Drive."

Among the other items listed were: "Four 'secret' and four 'confidential' personnel documents concerning Edwin G. Moore II" "2 white sheets of paper, approximately 5 inches by 8 inches with different number series plus the words 'Latin America is a very warm place' written on one of the sheets"; "One 8-inch by 10-inch white sheet of paper with the diagram of the Lot No. 37, Block 9, Fort Sumner Drive, plus diagram of the house located on the above lot"; "One 14-page document dated May 5, 1971, identified as station directive, classified secret"; "Four identical pages xeroxed of classified confidential dated 2/26/68 concerning a medical exam of Edwin G. Moore II."